"Raising Generations of Strategic Leaders"

ORIENTATION FOR FRESHMEN

The Program began with an opening prayer followed by an introduction of the faculty and the staff of Palm Institute. The President Dr. Peter Carlos Okantey welcomed the students and provided a brief historical background of Palm Institute and NAPE Foundation and how they have impacted in the lives of Ghanaians over the past several years. He shared the various opportunities present for students at Palm Institute. He further advised students to work diligently towards achieving the goal for which they were enrolled in the school. He concluded by assuring the students that Palm Institute is determined to equip students with the skills to think critically and analytically, write well and speak confidently wherever they find themselves and that these skills will facilitate their individual and professional success. The Director of Academic Affairs Mr. Michael Lawer Tetteh welcomed the students as well. He shared about the academic rules and regulations that each student must adhere to. The freshmen were given the opportunity to ask questions and interact with leadership, staff and faculty of the Institute.

As part of the academic processes, Palm Institute held its 3rd Matriculation on the 10th of October, 2015 at the Mathew Essie Lecture Hall. Dr. Peter Carlos Okantey, the president of Palm Institute addressed and formally welcomed all the fresh students into the family of Palm "Every individual has the potential to achieve success given equal opportunities and resources."
