Ernest Sie

Ernest Sie is from Duadaso in the Brong-Ahafo Region. He heard about Palm Institute of Strategic Leadership when two students came to speak about the school in his community. Ernest began his education at Palm Institute in the fall of 2015 and is working towards a Diploma in Business Administration. He has been awarded a partial scholarship that has greatly assisted him in having the opportunity to further his education.

"I chose Palm Institute because the programs offered are in line with what my future career goals are." Ernest plans to work as an administrator and is working hard to ensure he will be competitive in the job market one day.

"I always make it a point to participate in quizzes, assignments and presentations. I have been able to develop my writing and speaking skills with the help of my lecturers." Ernest feels that the presentation
