DISCLAIMER:

The NAPE Foundation volunteers in Ghana are not in any capacity to act as legal agents or partners of the Foundation but are serving as persons with an interest in volunteering their skills, time and resources to enable the Foundation to carry out its mission and vision in Ghana.

The NAPE Foundation volunteers in Ghana work under supervision and are to carry out their assigned tasks and responsibilities, under their own will and with no expectation of payment or reward by the Foundation for the services they have rendered. The Foundation however provides decent housing for all volunteers.

We strive to work with volunteers as valuable persons with whom the mission and vision of NAPE can be achieved as a service to the people of Ghana, and as an example of giving back to the community without expectation of reward.

Volunteers hereby agree to serve in assigned communities regardless of race, sex, creed or national origin.
